Tanya Jones
Drum tutor
Rockworks director

Tanya has played the Drums for over 30 years and been a drumming tutor for 19 years. Tanya began her drumming career touring with her band between 2006-2009 and has been playing in local bands ever since.

A twice World Record holder as part of the Stick it to MS records in 2009 (580+ drummers) and 2012 (800+ drummers), she also holds a Trinity and Guildhall Grade 6 in Rock and Pop drums

Tanya co-founded The Rockworks Academy in 2017 with Andy which became a not-for-profit social enterprise in 2020 together Michael.

An advocate for making music accessible to all, Tanya was a Tutor for the Clem Burke Drumming study in 2019, teaching a teenage student with Autism and she participated in the BBC Children in Need Drumathon supporting Owain Wyn Evans in November 2021.

Tanya has experience teaching and supporting individuals with Autism, ADHD, Cerebral Palsy, Stroke survivors, MS and visual impairments and is passionate about advocating drumming as an intervention for health benefits.
Tanya leads a Ladies drum circle and regularly delivers talks and group sessions to Womens Institute groups, schools and colleges.

Tanya also enjoys heavy rock and metal music, playing gigs with her band and spending time with her children and family.

THE Rock WORKS MUSIC ACADEMY